

How can we as Americans allow Sinclair to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election? This is another example of Dictatorship and nasty politics.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This smear campaign is not in the public's best interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

I am looking with great interest to see how much money and power controls what we Americans look at. Is this a brain washing process? If so I will buy a satellite TV or start reading more books. Thank you for reading my concern.